FLOWERING THE CROSS

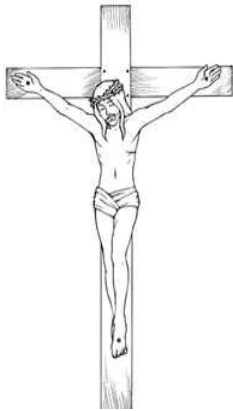

In spite of its function as a brutal form of execution, the Cross stands at the center of our faith as a symbol of life. There can be no Easter without Good Friday, no Resurrection without the Crucifixion. Indeed, the Cross, rather than the empty tomb, has held the place of honor as the primary symbol of the Christian faith. A modern expression of this idea may be found in the custom of flowering the cross. As we did last year, Tuckahoe will celebrate the flowering of the cross on Easter morning during the Children's Sermon. You are invited to bring fresh blooms from your gardens to help fill the cross with emblems of "new life".

In preparation for the Easter event, the cross will be placed in the sanctuary on Palm Sunday, draped in purple. On Good Friday the cross will be draped in black and a crown of thorns added. Then on Easter morning the cross will be adorned with greenery and flowers and lifted high in celebration of the Resurrection of Our Lord.

FROM THE PASTOR'S STUDY

REVIEWING HOLY WEEK

Each time I review a familiar movie, the foreknowledge of the story's end elicits a certain comfort and I am able to pay closer attention to nuances in the plot. The tradeoff is that I have lost that heart-pounding excitement I had the first time I saw it. In those moments when the fate of the main character hangs in the balance, I find the dramatic effect dampened by knowing the ending.

Reviewing the events of Holy Week can sometimes be like reviewing that familiar movie. We often watch the events of Jesus' life between his triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm/Passion Sunday and his crucifixion on Good Friday with the comfort of knowing what happens, Jesus dies...but on Easter morning he is alive! In our dramatic reenacting of these events, much like a well scored, emotionally stirring movie, we are moved by Christ's suffering and rejection, angered and bewildered by the fickleness of the crowd whose sweet "Hosannas!" change to the bitter cry "Crucify Him!" And still, the solemnity of the Last Supper, the depths of despair in the garden of Gethsemane, the agony of the Cross, and the emptiness of Holy Saturday are lightened by the dawn of Easter. And much like your favorite dramatic movie, the ending is always the same.

So then what is gained by reenacting the events of this week in Jesus' life if we know the ending? One possibility is that it keeps the inexhaustible nuances of these events continually challenging our faith and devotion. The events leading to Easter offer us again a way of participating in these saving events through a sequential set of actions, Scriptures, and common prayer. Through these means, we can reflect deeply on our human condition and what it cost God to deliver humanity from the bondage to sin and death. As we participate together in the services of Holy Week, God grants us a fresh awareness of what it means for our community and Christians around the world to be united in Jesus' self-emptying death and triumphant resurrection. The promise of Jesus, "...I am with you always, to the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20) is then the "to be continued..." of the greatest story ever told.

So even though we think we know how the story ends, the full story is yet to be revealed as we are the actors in the continuing story, responding to the events and images of Holy Week in light of the reality of Easter.

This year we are again afforded the opportunity to pay closer attention, beginning with Palm/Passion Sunday and continuing with Maundy Thursday Celebration of the Last Supper and the Tenebrae (meaning "shadows") Service on Good Friday at 7:30pm.

I hope that as we retell the story that together we will experience a joy unlike any we have had before on that glorious Easter Dawn!

Grace and Peace,

Patrick

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2014

APRIL UPDATE WITH WONDERFUL WAYS TO SERVE!

Maybe YOU would like to take on just "a piece" of a hallway or one room to decorate as your gift to VBS 2014....

This year's plan for "help wanted" - ASAP- to plan and carry out transforming our space for VBS is the new plan that was met with much success last year. We are dividing the areas into small, specific-themed spaces that are easy for adult Sunday School classes, families, friends, and even individuals to decorate. There are many simple ideas with instructions just waiting for you to carry this out!

The 2014 theme, "Workshop of Wonders - Imagine & Build with God", is all about experiencing the wonder of God in the midst of the ordinary, everyday world around us. So many ways of creating wonders will be experienced!

Imagine being surrounded by and using wood, paint, clay, fabric, metal, paper, Legos, gears, wheels, and more to create unique and wondrous results!

The 6 areas that still need decorators, and their themes, are:

- 1) Duntreath, stairwells, and entry hall ceiling: Combination of several kinds of creating (giant Legos, gears, paint, etc.). There will already be VBS theme banners as a part of the decorations
- 2) 1st half of preschool hall and portion of entry wall: building toys (Legos, tinker toys, blocks, etc.)
- 3) Hall to the left of entry hall and portion of entry wall: painting (artistic painting and wall/house painting - brushes, paint splattered hanging canvas, pails, etc.)
- 4) Front hall (leading to parlor & Duntreath) and portion of entry wall: gears, machinery, robots, wheels, etc.)
- 5) 2nd floor hall between room between room 210 and 202: drawing, coloring, paper-folding.
- 6) Stairwells and entry hall ceiling: balloons, gear shapes, colorful drapes of fabric (as in pouring paint).

The curriculum (book, online site, Pinterest, Facebook page) has many wonderful, easy decorating ideas with detailed instructions. Note: "Entry hall" is the hall between rooms 106 and 108.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2014 OTHER WAYS YOU CAN HELP NOW

- 1) Volunteer to put the outdoor signs up after Easter Day AND take them down at the end of VBS week.
- 2) Volunteer to put up posters on the playground AND take them down after VBS.
- 3) Volunteers to display or distribute flyers at your child's preschool (if permitted) and/or display in businesses that allow it.
- 4) Tell your family, friends and neighbors. Take registration forms to them! We would love to reach our maximum of 65 children in attendance!
- 5) Purchase or donate needed items. There will be a list of items to loan or donate on the Children's Ministries bulletin board in the hall. Items include Lego sets (basic, original size), Play-Doh, foil, boxes and cardboard tubes of all sizes, wheels, Slinkys, oscillating tower type fans (short or tall, to become robots), canvas drop cloth, paint brushes, used dryer ducts, empty paint buckets, blue-print paper (new or used), and other similar items. Be sure your name is on all loaned items.

Sign up at the display in Duntreath Hall to help either pre-week with preparations or during VBS as a teacher, activity leader, assistant, youth helper, photographer, puppeteer, sidekick to our puppet, drama person, and lots more. The opportunities are many and of a great variety. There is something for everyone!

ALLELUIA! CHRIST IS RISEN! FIFTY DAYS OF JOY

Easter is a festival season of fifty days whose first day is Easter Day, the Sunday of the Resurrection, and whose last day is the Day of Pentecost. Easter is such a huge mystery and celebration that we can't keep it in just one day. The time to get ready to enter the mystery of Easter, Lent, is greater than the time to get ready to enter the mystery of Christmas, Advent. Easter is an even greater mystery and celebration than Christmas! The fortieth day of Easter is Ascension Day, this year on May 29, always on a Thursday and, consequently, easily forgotten! (Read about the event of Christ's Ascension: Acts 1:6-11.) The word Easter comes from Eostre, a Teutonic goddess whose name is associated with springtime, growth, and fertility. In most languages the name of the day is Pascha, which means "Passover".

The color of this time of the Church Year is, as is Easter Day, white for purity, joy, and celebration. We remember this time especially with the empty cross, a sign of the victory of Easter.

Remember that each and every Sunday throughout the year is a "little Easter", reminding us as Christians of the resurrection, since it was on the first day of the week that Jesus rose from the dead. During this, Eastertide, help your family continue the great celebration by lighting a candle at your evening meal and saying a prayer of thankful joy! It is also appropriate to have mini egg hunts throughout this time. Make the most of those plastic eggs! Remember that the eggs, chicks, bunnies and butterflies are symbols of new life and reminders of the resurrection of Christ and new life in each of us. Happy Easter!

2014 MISSION TRIP TEAM

Mission Team, please remember that there is a meeting on Sunday, April 13th immediately following worship. We will discuss travel details of the trip and review "ASP office work" that needs to be completed. It is a busy time and several members may not be able to attend this meeting. If you are unable to attend, please see Shawna Shade to meet with her to review the information. The registration payment can be brought to the meeting or sent to the church at this time.

treasures must go now, contact Terry Brady (740-1768) and an effort will be made to accommodate you and your treasures.

LAMB'S BASKET

Tuckahoe's non-perishable food collection for LAMB's Basket for March totaled 33.4 pounds. Remember that the official day for this collection is the second Sunday of each month. However, items may be brought to church and deposited in the boxes in Sunday School rooms or in the hallway between the narthex and Duntreath Hall.

If you are looking for a volunteer opportunity, LAMB's Basket might be the ticket. This food pantry provides food for needy Henrico county residents who qualify for assistance. Volunteers are always needed to stock shelves, sort food as it is brought in, help recipients shop, and carry bags to cars.

Tuckahoe is signed up for the 3rd Thursday of each month but volunteers are needed Tues.- Fri. of each week. If you would like to sign up or have questions about the program, contact Terry Brady (740-1768 or atmbrady@gmail.com) or John Flournoy (282-8220 or johnflournoy@comcast.net)

Feeding the Community

The Outreach Division's prayer request for April is our current Confirmation Class.

The Confirmands are Shelley Galt, Bailey Kane, Marin Shade, Polly Sommers, and Ian Stephenson. Please pray for these youth and their leaders, Sherry Flournoy and Patrick Dennis, as they explore together what it means to be a member of our church.

2014 YARD SALE SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13

Keep the second Saturday in September on your radar. Sales from this event will help fund mission trips for our congregation. Also, be thinking about those treasured items in your house which might become treasures for someone else. If possible, hold onto your treasures until September.

GLORY TO GOD! OUR NEW HYMNALS PRESENT AN OPPORTUNITY.

We have made available our former blue hymnals to those who dedicated and wanted to reclaim them. With that a new day has arrived, one of comfort from hymns we grew up with and newer hymns with fresh inspiration. Opening our new hymnals, Glory to God, we will find a dedication plate inscribed "In honor of" or "In memory of" someone's loved one, and you may choose that person. You will find a hymnal dedication envelope in each pew rack, as well as more on the Narthex table and on the counter at the office. Please take one, complete it and choose either to honor or memorialize a special person. Then add your donation ($25 check or cash for each hymnal), and place this into the offering plate or bring it to the office. These hymnals that we dedicate have inspired words that God uses to speak to each of our hearts, and we say, "Glory to God!"

AROUND THE CHURCH

you!

Jackie Meyers writes: “My family and I truly appreciate all the support we have received from our Tuckahoe family during the past three months. A special thank you goes to Patrick, Ginger and Meg who were with us every step of our journey. All of you have been such a comfort to us during this very sad time.”

To the TPC Endowment Fund: “What a magnificent tribute to my wife, Libby! Your placing a brick with her name in the Heritage Walkway will be there forever in memory of her church – over 50 years a member, where our three children grew up in a wholesome environment; and where she went to Sunday services, even when her long illness made it an effort to do so. Thank you again.”
Sincerely, Dick Dawes for the Dawes Family

CREATIVE? SOME FREE TIME ON YOUR HANDS? A GOOD COMMUNICATOR?

Can you answer “yes” to one or more of these questions? Maybe you are a former or current teacher and know all about the importance of bulletin boards...or someone who loves to cut, paste and create fun images...if so, you might be just the person we need! The staff and several divisions have identified the need to spruce up our outward communications around the church through improved, up-to-date and artistic bulletin boards. We would love to form a group of people who would like to take on the task. It won't be time consuming...it just needs persons focused on the task and willing to change things up about once a quarter or so to keep our bulletin boards fresh and informative. If you are interested, please call Mary at the office (282-2860) or email her (office@tuckahoepres.org) and she will be happy to give you more details.

MISSING...

The Property Division is missing a 1/2 case of Mannington floor cleaner. The cleaner is in spray bottles and was in a box. It's an expensive product and we are sure it is somewhere in the church...just in the wrong place. If you see it, please let the church office know. Keep your eyes open!
Thanks!

PHOTOGRAPHER NEEDED!

Do you see “the picture” in everything? Always have your camera with you? We are seeking one or more “official church photographers” that can be counted on to take pictures at church events. These would be used for the bulletin boards mentioned above as well as on the web site to keep people informed about happenings at Tuckahoe. Call the church office if you are interested.
