WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANNUAL GIVING

CALL TO WORSHIP

We come to worship God in many ways.
We come singing, dancing, and shouting for joy.
We come grieving, mourning, and crying for loss.
We come asking, praying, and seeking peace.
We come to worship as we are, knowing that God will meet us here.
Come, Holy Spirit, and fill this space. Let us worship God!

*HYMN "Come Sing to God" No. 805

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION
Eternal God, in every age you have raised up men and women to live and die in faith. We confess that we are indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid. In your mercy, forgive us. Give us courage to follow in your way, that joined with those from ages past, who have served you with faith, hope, and love, we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ.

*ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

*GLORIA PATRI No. 581

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

This morning, during the Moments with Children, we will collect the monthly CentsAbility Offering. This important monthly offering, based on "two cents per meal", is a way for all of us to give to the hungry in our community.

The Women's Study Group welcomes all TPC women to a monthly study, fellowship and learning time the first Monday of each month. The date of the next meeting is tomorrow, November 4 at 7 pm. We are doing a year-long study of the book of Psalms. See Meg Packard prior to the meeting to purchase your copy of the new book. Monthly meetings are held in the home of Ruth Anna Langdon at 903 Register Parkway. Please join us—Come, learn, grow and share with us!

This week we begin a new book study for our Tuesday morning Prayer Group. Please join us on Tuesdays, 9:30-10:30 a.m., to pray for one another, our petitions and joys, and for the city, state, and world. Also, eminent theologian, C. S. Lewis, will join us (via his book, “How to Pray - Reflections and Essays,” with a copy for each person). Together we will address long-held questions such as “Can prayer be proven to work?,” “Why make requests of God if God already knows what we need?,” “How do we make sense of what the New Testament teaches about prayer?,” “How can we get out of our own way and pray?,” and more! Practical, deep, transformational! Join us in this dynamic ministry outward and ministry inward. All are welcome! Please contact John Canada with questions (jbcanadajr@aol.com).

Our mid-week meal and programming continues this week with our Wednesday Night Supper at 6:00 p.m. in Duntreath Hall. This week Team 7 will provide a hearty Baked Potato Bar, Salad, and Dessert. The program will be our intern Martin Pinckney and some special guests from Virginia Interfaith Center speaking on inter faith and immigration issues. TPC Bells will rehearse at 6:30 p.m. in the bell room behind the chancel. Please sign up for dinner on the friendship pad this morning or on the event block on our web site: www.tuckahoeepres.org.

Tune in each week to the Woven Word podcast to listen to Patrick and Sarah (and some guests) talk through the lectionary scripture for the upcoming Sunday. You can listen from our website through the podcast tab or through Apple podcasts, Google podcast, Spotify or Stitcher. Contact Sarah with any questions (sdennis@tuckahoeepres.org).

Camp Hanover is holding a one-day retreat for Adults this Thursday, November 7, from 8 am - 3 pm in partnership with the POJ. Through brief “TED Talk” style presentations and guided table discussions, the retreat focus is Strength for Today, Bright Hope for Tomorrow; Reflecting on our Purpose and the Next Chapter. For more information and to register online, visit www.camphanover.org/bright-hope or call 804-779-2811. Cost is $20 and includes continental breakfast and hearty lunch.
