

2025 SLATE FOR NOMINATION AS ELDERS, DEACONS, AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

KERRY BARKSDALE
NOMINATING COMMITTEE

I joined Tuckahoe with my family in 2014. Since then, I have taught Sunday School and served on both the Stewardship & Finance and Fellowship committees. I have served as a Deacon and an Elder. My family includes my husband Kemp and our two teenagers, Ben and Erin.

JEB COOKE
NOMINATING COMMITTEE

I am a lifelong member of Tuckahoe (1991)—son of Jim & Karen Cooke and grandson of Sandy Richardson—and am currently active in the choir. Over the years at Tuckahoe, I have also participated in handbells, soundboard, acolyte, Youth Group, TPC musical productions, and occasionally as the VBS puppeteer. I am an Eagle Scout, and my project benefitted Tuckahoe's then-decrepit tool shed. My wife of seven years, Jessie, and I have two kids: Frances (3y) and Rowan (20m).

CAMELLIA WRONIEWICZ
NOMINATING COMMITTEE

I joined Tuckahoe Church in the early eighties. Originally, I felt the welcoming atmosphere as a new member, and that feeling continues to this day. I have served on this Property Committee since 2009 and as an Elder, Deacon, Sunday School Teacher, Decor, Fellowship, and Nominating Committees- and serve as one of the leaders of Theology on Tap. I consider the members of Tuckahoe my family. My children grew up in this church and my husband, Lucky, is also a very active member!

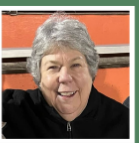

JOHN FLOURNEY
ELDER

I joined Tuckahoe forty years ago. I was a CPA and recently retired as a tax preparer. I serve on the Stewardship & Finance Committee and have served on various other TPC committees, taught Sunday School and the Disciple Class, and served as moderator of several Presbytery committees and task forces.

BECKY GROVES
ELDER

My family and I joined Tuckahoe in 2016, returning to the church I knew as a child! It's been a joy to watch my own children, Sarah Grace (10th grade) and Jack (6th grade), grow up in such a nurturing community. Over my time at Tuckahoe, I have been a children's Sunday school teacher, a member of the Christian Formation Committee, and a member of the choir. I previously served 3 terms as a deacon, as well as serving as the Moderator of the Board of Deacons.

PAT MACAULAY
ELDER

I joined Tuckahoe Presbyterian in the fall of 2003 and soon became a youth advisor. Since that time, I've enjoyed being in the choir, serving as an elder and deacon as well teaching in Women's Study Group, Sunday School, and Vacation Bible School. I feel blessed by my friends at Tuckahoe who have supported and nurtured me over the years and are part of my Virginia family. I'm also very close to my NC & SC Macaulay family (siblings and cousins) and am fortunate to have two dear sons: (1) Burt, who lives in Richmond with his wife, Katie, and their 3-year-old daughter, Arden, and (2) Alex, who lives in Taiwan.

ERIC JOHNSON
ELDER

My wife, Barbara Lockett, and I joined this wonderful church family at TPC at the beginning of 2018. While members at Tuckahoe, we've been incredibly fortunate to see family expand, with Graham (5) and Margot (1) joining us since. If that wasn't enough, we're lucky enough to have been joined by Barbara's parents, James and Marsha Lockett, just this past year. While at Tuckahoe, I've thoroughly enjoyed being a member of our choir. I served as a Deacon from 2019-2022 and Barbara and I have both served as Youth Group leaders in the past as well. We look forward to continuing to see the growth and energy here at Tuckahoe and how it will shape the future Christian formation of our children here at TPC in the years to come.

MOLLIE MEADOWS
YOUTH ELDER

I am a junior at Hermitage High School. I have been a part of TPC for as long as I has been alive. I am currently serving on Outreach and Christian Formation and am a member of the choir. I am also a part of the Youth Group. At school, I am a part of the Speech Team, Book Club, and am Captain of the Hermitage Quiz Bowl team.

ELDERS

DEACONS

KAREN BOYLES
DEACON

I joined Tuckahoe Presbyterian Church in December 2022, and participate in the Contemporary Issues Sunday school class, the Women's Study Group, TPC Book Club, and Sisters in Spirit. I am also an adult literacy tutor with The Read Center.

KIT CRAWFORD
DEACON

I am a born member of Tuckahoe Presbyterian Church. My parents were charter members of Tuckahoe, and I was born the year of the charter. In the mid-1980s, I left Tuckahoe for another church but a few years later felt God tapping on my shoulder telling me to return 'home', which I did. I've been here ever since. I have been involved with the Fellowship Committee for decades and love that group. Over the years, I've been a Deacon (now serving my fourth term) and I'm also on the Outreach Committee with my main communication being CARITAS. Interests outside of church are live music venues, gardening, and traveling.

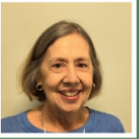

AMY GLASS
DEACON

In 1955, my family moved from Bristol Va to Richmond and Tuckahoe became our church. I had my confirmation in Wilson Hall, attended Sunday School in the big White House, Duntreath, watched the education building and Sanctuary constructed, and have fond memories of Youth Group. I married Robert (Bob) Glass in 1977, and we were members of Christ Presbyterian Church after our children, Tiffany and James, were born. When the Pastor was called away, I came home to Tuckahoe and Bob followed. I was active in Presbyterian Women Circles for many years and have been ordained as a Deacon and an Elder. I have served on the Fellowship Committee, cooked for Wednesday Night Suppers, and participated on Mission Teams. My current occupation is Grandmother to Aidan (18), Charlie (18), and Renae (16). I enjoy playing Mah Jong and traveling, and Bob and I enjoy camping with our Yorkie, Lucy.

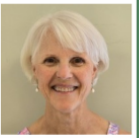

MARSHA LUCKETT
DEACON

I joined Tuckahoe Presbyterian Church last year after moving to the Richmond area to be closer to children and grandchildren. While a member of the Presbyterian church in Fredericksburg for over 30 years, I served in various positions including Sunday School teacher, moderator of Presbyterian Women, Deacon, and Elder.

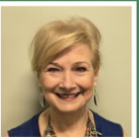

PAT MILLER
DEACON

I joined Tuckahoe 40-plus years ago after a neighbor welcomed my family into the neighborhood by inviting my then 3-year-old daughter to Tuckahoe's VBS. Since then, I have served several terms as an Elder, taught Sunday School and VBS, and served on the Christian Formation, Personnel Administration, and Outreach Committees. My husband is Paul (a member of St. Bridget Catholic Church), and I have a son, daughter-in-law, and grandson (Alex, Robbie, and Oliver) at Tuckahoe, and a daughter, son-in-law, and two grandchildren in San Diego.

DOT SMITH
DEACON

I am a lifelong member of TPC. My parents were charter members, so I was literally born into the church. I have served previously as a Deacon, an Elder, a Sunday school teacher, a VBS teacher and a Youth Group leader. I have also been a member of numerous committees. My husband, Walter, and I can be found most Sundays in the balcony with my daughter, Rachel Sherman, and her family - Ethan, Wyatt, and Emory. I have found TPC to be a place of joy, celebration, and mourning with family baptisms, weddings, and funerals (both parents). This congregation has always offered me love, nurturing, comfort, and support, and I look forward to offering others the same as a part of TPC's ministry.

DONNA BOONE WALKER
DEACON

I joined Tuckahoe Presbyterian Church in 2024 after visiting for about two years with my husband, who was a Deacon and Usher. Besides church activities, I am active in James River Art League and Tarrington Art League, Richmond Shag Club (love to dance), and Indian Creek Community Group in Kilmarnock, Va. Family includes husband Jerry Walker, son David Towberman, daughter Dana Gaskin, and son-in-law Charles Gaskin, and three Gaskin grandchildren, Andrew, Tyler, and Addison. We all live in the Richmond metropolitan area.

AMANDA WALLACE
DEACON

I joined the church in 1990. My husband Dixon and I have three adult children and four grandchildren. I'm interested in oil painting, gardening, reading cooking, and knitting.
